

SmartHomeSearch

We provide a free list of buyer agents for your selected area. This service is provided free of charge to you on behalf of our national network of real estate agents who specialize in working with buyers. The SmartHomeSearch Network is made up of brokerages all across the country who have been carefully screened for their dedication to buyers

Whether you are a first time home buyer, relocating locally or relocating from out of state, your careful selection of a trusted buyer agent will reap many rewards.

There are poorly-trained, seller-oriented, and self serving real estate agents all over the country. Don't fall into the trap of inadvertently choosing one of them. Because we closely monitor consumer feedback on all of our agents, and provide you with good interview questions the SmartHomeSearch Program will empower you to select a Realtor you can Trust.
